Rules of the competition:

1. Air Guitarists' guitars must be invisible, i.e. air.
2. Air Guitarists can play electric or acoustic air guitar – or both of them.
3. Every contestant must attend the qualifying round on Thursday September 7th, 2006 in order to reach the final (excluding the reigning champ and the winners from the official national competitions).
4. The Air Guitar World Championships is open to contestants of any existing country. However, if there is an official national competition held in contestant's own country, one should qualify through that.
5. In the qualifying round on Thursday, contestants play one one-minute clip of a self-chosen song. 4-5 best will reach the final. Contestants must bring their own song on a CD or Minidisc (with exact starting point marked). One-minute clip is allowed. Organisers restrain right to arrange another qualification round ("semi-finals") on Final night if necessary.
6. In the final on Friday, contestants play two one-minute rounds: a) Self-chosen song. Contestants must bring their own song on a CD or Minidisc (with exact starting point marked). One-minute clip is allowed. b) Compulsory, which is the same song for everyone and is to be announced in the Final.
7. Help from personal air roadies is allowed. Duets or backing bands – air or real – are not allowed.
8. Air guitarist's performance must be a solo performance. Props like plectrums and costumes can be used in a preferred way.
9. The Jury is independent. The results of the jury cannot be protested.
10. Contestants take part in the competition at their own risk.
