

Dozens of foreign reporters visit the Air Guitar World Championships annually, and the news coverage from the event is worldwide. The articles and news end up in the biggest daily papers, music publications, lifestyle magazines, news agencies, TV channels and radio stations. Also several production companies have made programs and documentary films about the event. Media coverage from along the years:

North-America:

Finland:

Europe:

Asia:

Africa:

South-America:

Australia: